About University

The Nanaji Deshmukh Veterinary Science University, Jabalpur was established on 3rd November 2009, under the Act No. 16 of the Madhya Pradesh Pashu Chikitsa Vigyan Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam, 2009 with the objectives to impart education in different branches of Veterinary, Fisheries and allied sciences, for the advancement of learning and prosecution of research in Veterinary and Fisheries Sciences; and to undertake the extension of such sciences to the rural people in co-operation with the State Veterinary Department. NDVSU has been ranked 47th among Agricultural Universities during 2019 by ICAR, New Delhi. The ICAR has accredited post graduate programmes of College of Veterinary Science & A.H., Jabalpur & Mhow. The undergraduate programme of all the three campi has been accredited by the council. The well established University has Faculty of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry under which three Veterinary Colleges are located at Jabalpur, Mhow and Rewa and a College of Fisheries Science, located at Jabalpur. Along with this Animal Biotechnology Centre and School of Wildlife Forensic and Health, are also located at Jabalpur. The University offers a two years Diploma Course in Animal Husbandry in five Veterinary Polytechnics located at Jabalpur, Mhow, Rewa, Bhopal and Morena, with an aim to produce human resource for the Veterinary Field Assistant cadre of the State Government. The university has introduced a one year post graduate diploma course in wildlife health management.

College of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry, Jabalpur, established on July 8, 1948, has transformed over the years from the modest beginning in small hutments into full fledged Veterinary University. College of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry, Mhow was established on 12th July 1955. The alumni of colleges have created an impeccable impact not only in our country but in other countries also. Both the colleges became constituent of the Jawaharlal Nehru Krishi Vishwa Vidyalaya, Jabalpur, on 2nd October 1964. The College of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry, Rewa, came into existence in the year 2007, as a constituent unit of Jawaharlal Nehru Krishi Vishwa Vidyalaya, Jabalpur. The constituent colleges, today, have a full complement of the state-of-the-art laboratories in 17 departments, each under the guidance of highly qualified and experienced team of scientists. The College of Fishery Science, Jabalpur was established in the year 2012.
